1. At the conclusion of the Rule 98 hearing on 16 October 2006, the Trial Chamber asked the Prosecution if it was aware of evidence relevant to certain locations referred to in the Indictment. The Prosecution asked for leave to respond in writing, and the responses follow.

2. The Trial Chamber asked for evidence relevant to the locations of Mortema (para. 48 of the Indictment) and Kurubonla (para. 50 of the Indictment) referred to in Counts 3 to 5.

In support of the allegation relating to Mortema the Prosecution relies on the evidence of TF1-071, on 19.1.05, pp. 30-33. The Prosecution is not aware of evidence supporting the allegation relating to Kurubonla.

3. The Trial Chamber asked for evidence relevant to the location of Kabala (para. 56 of the Indictment) referred to in Counts 6 to 9. The Prosecution is not aware of evidence supporting the allegation relating to Kabala.

4. The Trial Chamber asked for evidence relevant to the location of Wondedu (para. 62 of the Indictment) referred to in Counts 10 and 11. In support of the allegation the Prosecution relies on the evidence of TF1-015, on 31.1.05, pp. 3-9, and for differences in spelling, the transcript of 28.1.05, p. 2, where the location is spelled Wundidu, and the transcript of 27.1.05, pp. 148-149, where the location is spelled Wendedu.

5. The Trial Chamber asked for evidence relevant to the locations of Port Loko (referring to the town) and Lunsar (para. 76 of the Indictment) referred to in Count 13. The Prosecution is not aware of evidence supporting the allegation relating to Port Loko. In support of the allegation relating to Lunsar the Prosecution relies on the evidence of TF1-255, on 18.7.06, pp. 100-105.
